

Eckerd College

The Lloyd W. Chapin Award

The Lloyd W. Chapin Award for Excellence in Scholarship and Art

For your highly regarded scholarship and sustained commitment and leadership in the area of human rights;

For your publication of four scholarly books that address global human rights;

For your producing more than 60 scholarly articles, book reviews, and presentations in the areas of human rights and international relations;

For your inspiring students to become global citizens through the study of international law, human rights and international relations in Geneva, Switzerland; Strasbourg, France; and at the International Court of Justice, The Hague, Netherlands;

For your thoroughly reviewing and analyzing the research on best practices in general education at liberal arts colleges and disseminating these findings to the campus community as Chair of the 2007 General Education Review Committee;

For your many contributions to the College's general education program as a participant and lecturer in Western Heritage in a Global Context and as the Chair of Quest for Meaning;

For your creative and thoughtful leadership of the Eckerd College Honors Program; and

For your raising the profile of Africa in the Tampa Bay community by co-chairing the College's year-long initiative on "The Plight and Promise of Africa";

Eckerd College presents The Lloyd W. Chapin Award for Excellence in Scholarship and Art to William Felice, Professor of Political Science.

ECKERD COLLEGE

4200 54th Avenue South
St. Petersburg, FL 33711

(800) 456-9009 or (727) 867-1166